CITY AND DISTRICT.

To Be Built by District.

The District authorities have decided to build the foundations for the pumping machinery at the Trumbull street pumping station of the water department. The Allis-Chalmers Company has the contract for the engines and foundations, but requested that the District undertake the execution thereof to the contracting company. The Allis-Chalmers people say they are satis-fled the foundation work can be done better under the direction of the District than through a subcontract let by them.

THE JUNIOR REPUBLIC

LADIES PAY VISIT TO YOUNG MUNICIPALITY.

Special Exercises in Their Honor-Address by Mr. William George-Flag Presentation.

Several train loads of ladies from Baltinore and Washington, who have interested themselves in the support of the National Junior Republic, went yesterday to attend special exercises arranged in their honor by the republic's youthful citizens. Among the party from Washington were Mrs. Geo. M. Sternberg, president of the National Society of the Children of the Revolution; Mrs. Charles F. Fairbanks, president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution: Mrs. Julius C. Burrows, Mrs. Howard Clark. Miss Hetzell, Miss Desha, Mrs. Lockwood, Mrs. Thomas C. Noves and Surgeon General George M. Sternberg, retired. The party from Baltimore included: Mrs. Andrew Melville Reid, Mr. Randolph Barton, jr., Miss Agnes Boone, Mrs. Charles Brown, Miss Canby, Mrs. Isaac Dixon, Miss Julia B. Dixon, Dr. Henry M. Fitzhugh, Miss Julia Johnson, Mrs. L. Tyson Manly, Mrs. Campbell Mortimer, Mrs. William S. Powell, Miss Ella Reeves, Mr. Champlin Robinson and Mr. John Sawyer Wilson. The program of entertainment included several features of exceptional interest—an address by Mr. William George, founder of the original Junior Republic at Freeville, Y.; the presentation of a silk flag given the republic by the Children of the Revolu-tion, and a judicial proceeding by the court of the republic, which resulted in the release of three prisoners from the republic jail.

Origin of the Movement.

Mr. George talked of the foundation of the first Junior Republic, of his long settled conviction that such an institution must wo: . for the great betterment of the citizens, and of his satisfaction that this confidence was now sustained by the exceptional records being made in various colstudents whose first training had een obtained at the Freeville republic. Mrs. Sternberg presented the flag, a silk garrison emblem of great beauty, with an appropriate, but brief, speech to the young citizens. The response was made by William Wilson, the president of the republic, who gracefully thanked Mrs. Sternberg

The trial was the special attraction of the day to the lady visitors. To their great delight the republic's court of justice was regularly convened in the main hall of justice, and three prisoners were brought forward for judgment as to their punishment for offenses of which they had already been convicted The court decided, after hearing reports from the jailer and others that the offenders had already served a suffi-ciently long term in jail. The release was made (a condition that any further failure on their part to obey the rules would result in contin i confinement or these first of-A drill by the boys of the republic and

Many residents of the neighborhood of 1st and D streets northwest left their beds and homes this morning about 2:45 o'clock, owing to an alarm for a fire in sheds in rear of 403, 405 and 407 1st street. The flames at one time gained such headway that a number of dwellings were threatened. As soon as the fire was discovered and an outcry made an alarm was turned in, calling out several companies of the fire department. Many belated excursionists followed the fire apparatus to the scene of the blaze, and quite a crowd collected about the burning buildings despite the early hour of the morning. Houses 47 and 49 D street did not es-
